

CONTENTS

Special Issue

Women at Work in Sub-Saharan Africa: Reciprocal, Reproductive, Tributary and Commodified Labor, c.1800–2000

Introduction	1
KARIN PALLAVER AND FILIPA RIBEIRO DA SILVA
The “Global Collaboratory on the History of Labour Relations”: Putting Women’s Labor and Labor Relations in Sub-Saharan Africa in a Global Context	12
KARIN HOFMEESTER
Gendered Labor Relations in Colonial and Post-Colonial Eritrea	43
VALENTINA FUSARI
From Subsistence Farmers to Guardians of Food Security and Well-Being: Shifts and Continuities in Female Labor Relations in Tanzania (1800–2000)	67
KARIN PALLAVER
Women and Work in Zimbabwe, c.1800–2000	93
RORY PILOSSOF
Balancing Subsistence Agriculture and Self-Employment in Small Businesses: Continuity and Change in Women’s Labor and Labor Relations in Mozambique, 1800–2000	118
FILIPA RIBEIRO DA SILVA
Women’s Labor Relations in Sub-Saharan Africa and the Global South Compared, 1800–2000	152
KARIN HOFMEESTER, KARIN PALLAVER, AND FILIPA RIBEIRO DA SILVA	